

DECEMBER 07 - JANUARY 08

SLIDES' EVENING

Catherine and Frank warmly thank everyone who so enthusiastically supported the Slides' Evening event in aid of the National Children's Home recently. As on previous occasions we saw a wide variety of scenes, and have become quite accustomed to this entertaining electronic wizardry kindly organized by Mike Seviour and his sister Madeline. Together with donations, the evening raised £175.00. Splendid!

"SAMARITAN'S PURSE"

Thankyou to everyone who gave boxes, gifts and donations to the Operation Christmas Child.
I dropped off over 20 boxes. Hopefully in the New Year we will hear where they went.

JO WRIGHT

Thanks to Jo, for organising the filling, wrapping and delivery of the "shoe-boxes" which were on display in church recently. Jo had to drop them off at Dagenham Motors, but they will be transported to anywhere in the needy world. Thanks to everyone who has filled a box, or made a donation, to help as many children as possible have presents at Christmas.

J M A

I was pleased to report at our JMA Service on 18th November that the amount raised by The Drive for the past JMA year was £640. Half of this came from donations and fund-raising. Thank you to everyone who supported the Beetle Drive and Easter Egg Hunt. The rest of the money was collected by our JMA members and receiving their badges and certificates were:

Rochelle Inbakumar; Thea Garner; Charlotte Alder; Jenny Runeckles; Timothy Wright; David Wright; Lorna Wright and Susannah Normanton.

Tim also received his Long Service Certificate denoting 7 years collecting – well done to him. Susannah and Lorna have now ‘retired’ after many years so a big thank you to them and families for their support.

Our service led by Stephen started with the dedication of the filled shoeboxes for the Samaritan’s Purse charity and included quizzes where we learnt the populations of the largest cities and countries. With the avid attention of Thea, Rochelle and Charlotte, Stephen then told the story of Jonah pointing out that God cares for everyone, everywhere and that, as with giving through JMA and the shoebox appeal, we can all do our ‘bit’, however small, for the benefit of others all over the world.

Thank you all for your continued support.

DIANE FOSTER

“We all wish to join in Stephen’s thanks to Diane, for all her efforts in obtaining such a wonderful result! Thanks also to the children, for their week-by-week collecting from parents, uncles, aunts and grandparents, as well as friends in church.” Editor

CHARLES WESLEY at THE HOSPITAL CHAPEL

On October 6th. our augmented church choir at The Drive gave a second celebration of "The Hymns of Charles Wesley", by request, at The Hospital Chapel, Ilford Hill, which was much appreciated. As previously, the conductor was Andrew Taylor, and the organist was Duncan Paterson. Canon John Barnes welcomed us and led the prayers. A retiring collection was taken and after expenses were deducted, the proceeds were divided between The Hospital Chapel funds and The National Children's Home, enabling £79 to be sent to NCH.

(Sue asked Father John Barnes if he would write about the event, and he kindly agreed to do so - his appreciation follows this note.)

In the past fifty years hymnody has changed. Out have gone hymns like "From Greenlands icy mountains" "Onward Christian soldiers", "Pleasant are Thy courts above"; in have come "Shine, Jesus shine", "Lord for the years", and "Christ triumphant". In many churches the traditional hymn of years gone by is almost unknown. It is good that we learn and sing new hymns. After all "Abide with me" was new once. Yet on the other hand we should not neglect some of the master pieces of long ago.

Charles Wesley gave us hymns which came to be seen in hymnbooks of nearly every Christian church and it was lovely that Methodists came to The Hospital Chapel recently to celebrate his birthday three hundred years ago. He wrote for every conceivable occasion and most of us would feel impoverished if we were not able to sing "Love Divine", "Jesu, Lover of my soul" and "O Thou who camest from above". Further, his words have often been set to superb tunes unlike some of our modern songs. Many of them will not stand the test of time.

The event at The Chapel had so much going for it. The partnership of Andrew Taylor as conductor and Duncan Paterson as organist ensured the singers gave of their best. And how wonderful to hear S. S. Wesley's great anthem, "Blessed be the God and Father", together with the very different, "Lead me, Lord." Then we had Charles Wesley and his wife with us dressed in eighteenth century costume. The whole thing was so well thought out. I did have one disappointment. We didn't have "And can it be?". I associate this hymn so much with the Wesleys' conversion and it has such a stirring tune. Until recently it was seldom heard in the Church of England. Nowadays it is becoming very common and is included in all our new hymnbooks. It is an example of a traditional hymn making a comeback. Yes, I was sorry not to have it, but at a feast you can't have every single thing you like. CANON JOHN BARNES

A PRAYER:

Lord, we pray for the unity of your church,

branches of a single tree,
and streams from one flowing river.
May we remain united to you and to each other,
because you are the source of life;
and may we send out your life
and pour forth your flowing streams over all the earth, drawing inspiration and joy from you. Saint Cyprian of Carthage (c. 200 – 258)
