FROM OUR MINISTER Revd. Bernardino Mandlate

Friends

I am writing this letter as we begin Lent. This is a time when we take time to rest in God. We are so busy every day doing things that at the end of the day sometimes we find it difficult to say what we have been doing. Matthew 6 tells us not to be busy with stuff of this world, because we don't run the world, God runs the world.

There are three things that Jesus, in Matthew's gospel, tells us to be 'busy' with namely prayer, fasting, and charity or almsgiving. You may want to note that Jesus assumes that we are 'busy' doing these things. He says in the gospel when you pray; when you fast; when you do charity.

Lent is time to take stock, time to spend ourselves in prayer, working our relationship with God. Jesus even gives us a guide prayer to follow. Revd C. Hoffacker, an Episcopal priest and writer, says that prayer takes us away from a false sense of responsibility that can turn us into driven people. When we pray, we are free to rest, to rest in God.

When we fast, for those who fast, we are dealing with the way we relate with ourselves, as we are creatures of body as well as soul, flesh as well as spirit. Fasting from food, alcohol, TV or shopping, makes us less dependent on those things. Then we can allow some emptiness in ourselves and invite God to fill that emptiness.

We are stewards of God's generous gifts to us. All that we think we have, has been entrusted to our care by God. It's not ours to keep, but to share with those less fortunate than ourselves. It helps us relate to other people who need our help, themselves children of God. When we give, it becomes an expression of God's justice. When we give, we accept that fact that we are not owners but trustees of what we have in our possession, our time, our lives. God runs the world. We are his instruments in the process of doing what God does in the world.

These three practises, prayer, fasting and charity when properly practised, are meaningful, channels of God's grace rather than extra burdens in our lives.

Friends, allow me to ask you to take time this Lenten season to pray, to fast and to do some charity work, some almsgiving. When you have done so, take time to see how you feel. Remember the words of Jesus in Matthew 6, don't let the one hand know what the other hand is doing. Jesus fasted forty days and forty nights. I am surely not asking you to fast for forty days, I am not asking you to fast at all, but to get involved in the Lenten spirit and do whatever it is that you

Take time, engage with God, engage with the world in which we live.

God bless

COMMEMORATION SERVICE JEANIE MACDONALD

It has been decided that a service of remembrance for Jeanie will be held at The Drive Church on Sunday 22nd April 2012. At 4.00pm.

This is in response to requests that we have not held a service in her honour, and time is passing. We will of course contact her relatives to advise them of our decision to hold a service at which they will have an opportunity to take part.

We regret that it has taken so long arranging this service, and hope our congregation will let any of her friends know, and that there will be good attendance on the day.

A Tea Party and fun afternoon at The Drive 16th June 2012 at 4.00pm

Please put this event in your diaries.

This will be a very enjoyable event at which all our congregation and any local people who wish to join us for the afternoon will be most welcome. It is hoped that the weather will be kind to us as we hope the tea will be in the church grounds, and there will be games and competitions in the church hall and grounds.

Please join us to make this a very happy and successful time. Janet Wragg and her team who arranged our very successful Christmas tree festival are making the arrangements for us.

This made me laugh

If my body was a car, I would be trading it in for a newer body I've got bumps dents and scratches and my headlights are out of focus. My gearbox is seizing up & it takes me hours to reach maximum speed I overheat for no reason and every time I sneeze, cough or laugh either my radiator leaks or my exhaust backfires!

CHURCH GROUNDS

A row of hedging shrubs has been planted along part of the eastern boundary by the house in Eastern Avenue in memory of Maisie Mitchell. The shrubs used are rosa rugosa rubra interspersed with white rosa pimpinellifolia.

The storm on 3rd January blew down one of the flowering cherry trees at the front of the church.

Fortunately there were no injuries and only slight damage to the fence. Thanks to Peter Bendon for clearing the branches across the pavement. We are now waiting for the trunk and stump to be removed by the professionals.

CHURCH FELLOWSHIP NEWS

At our February meeting Mr. Leslie Sutton gave us a most interesting talk about his experiences during the Second World War in the armed forces, including the D-Day Landings and also witnessing the Nuremburg Trials in 1945.

Mr. Sutton's theme was Remembrance. He spoke with feeling and flashes of humour, reminding us of the importance that succeeding generations should know about the horrors of war and the need to prevent it ever happening again. He was for many years a member of 12th Ilford Scout Troop based in Roll Gardens, Gants Hill and spoke very highly of the work and influence of scouting.

We do not meet during March and April, so that we can attend the Lenten Studies with St. Andrew's and Cranbrook Baptist Churches.

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday May 1st when our organist and choirmaster, Andrew Taylor will present a programme entitled "Musical Journeys". Do come along at 8.00pm for what is sure to be an entertaining evening.

KING JOSIAH

This is a "Rap" which was performed by the junior church at one of our services. Try it.

King Josiah instructed his men
To repair God's holy temple
The workmen found an ancient book
They asked Josiah to take a look,
King Josiah looked and saw
That they had found God's Holy law.
What a great thing to discover!
He read it aloud from cover to cover.

He made sure the people heard,
They hung onto its every word.
Not just the leaders, prophets and priests,
But all of them from the greatest to the least.
The people all felt really rotten,
Because God's law had been forgotten.
They all agreed that they would do,
Everything that God's Law told them to.

They went to the temple and brought out all
The objects used to worship Baal
And the evil goddess Asherah's,
And even some for worshipping stars!

They took them outside the city walls,
Where King Josiah burnt them all,
Then scattered the ashes all around
A place called Bethel: a burial ground.
He got rid of the Priests who had persisted,
(and also the women who had assisted)
In worshipping these Gods and Goddesses.
(The women had helped by weaving dresses.)

King Josiah then tore down
The altars just outside town
Where goat demons had once been praised;
But now they were completely razed.
King Josiah desecrated

The pagan alters where he hated
Molech was worshipped with evil vices,
Including human sacrifices.

Then he removed the detestable things
That had been used by previous kings.
Like horses and chariots to worship the sun,
And alters to Molech, the god of Ammon,
And Astarte, and Chemosh and other false gods;
And the alters on the palace roofs.
These detestable things, Josiah removed.

He destroyed the pillars and smashed the stones,
And covered the ruins with human bones,
So that the ground was desecrated,
And the alters could not be recreated.
But when he saw the tomb of the prophet
He told the people to keep off it.
The prophet was a man of Godly vision
Who had predicted Josiah's mission.

When Josiah returned to Jerusalem
He gathered the people and ordered them
To begin again the celebration
Of Passover throughout the nation.
It had been forgotten a long time before,
But they read about it in the book of the law.
In the eighteenth year of Josiah's reign,
Passover was celebrated once again.

(Based on 2 Kings 23 verses 1 to 23)
